Who would have thought that one day “kitsch” is going to be the new, most wanted and trendy look to have. From cuts inspired of pre-french revolution in 1789 to tailored trouser suits from the 1970’s, Allesandro Michelle proved us all wrong with his new, outstanding collection. A colorful breathtaking experience that took us to a different path: a path of discovery, an eye opening trip to an alternate univers full of excitment and surprises.
